Income is considered as the income of the highest earner per household. Income to declare includes, but is not limited to, average monthly earnings over the last 12 months from guaranteed earnings, guaranteed allowances, company contributions and variable pay or commissions from employment (this includes self-employment and informal employment), pension and annuity proceeds, interest earned on active and passive investments, rental income from leasing properties and distributions received from a trust.

Please Note:

Should you declare income lower than your actual income, it will be considered fraud and will lead to the immediate cancellation of your membership. You will then not be able to join Fedhealth Medical Scheme again.

What you are required to do

Step 1: Complete all the relevant sections below in black ink, writing one letter in a block. Please print clearly.

Step 2: Please sign section 5 (the main member and spouse or partner dependants must sign where applicable).

Step 3: Attach all relevant proof of income and other supporting documents requested in each section to avoid any administrative delays.

Step 4: e-mail it to update@fedhealth.co.za
