young people can't afford medical aid

As a younger person, you might be amongst the healthier people in the country, but since you've just started your career, you might not be able to afford private medical aid. Which, in South Africa, is an absolute must-have.

flexiFED^{Savvy} from Fedhealth – an affordable hospital plan for the digitally savvy younger generation – fills this void in the market.

With this option, Fedhealth hopes to cover young and healthy first-time medical aid members who otherwise might not join a medical scheme based on affordability challenges.

Here's why this innovative medical aid option is worth considering.

a fresh, affordable approach to medical aid for a new generation flexiFED^{Savvy} offers flexible medical aid cover for a generation who's looking for smarter ways to make their money (and health) go further.

flexibility - on top of receiving a hospital plan with the unique benefits for which Fedhealth has become known, members can choose one of three ways to fund day-to-day benefits if they choose to. This means that trips to the GP, over-the-counter medication or physiotherapy after a gym session gone wrong can also be covered without breaking the bank.

Priced at just R1 055 per month for a principal member, flexiFED^{Savvy} is the most affordable hospital plan in the market - without compromising on quality.

Young movers and shakers embrace technology, so they will especially enjoy the fact that flexiFED^{Savvy} is fulfilled via self-service on digital platforms only - no time-consuming (and frankly, boring) phone calls to a call centre.

what about day-to-day?

You can choose how you want to fund your day-to-day in one of 3 ways on your flexiFED^{Savvy} plan:

1 Use flexiFED^{Savvy} as a Hospital Plan with unlimited virtual GP visits and 3 face-to-face GP visits

The member funds all his/her own additional out-of-hospital expenses.

R1 055 p/m

3 Use flexiFED^{Savvy} as a Hospital Plan with Day-to-day Savings Back-up Plan

If the member needs funds for day-to-day medical expenses, they can access their back-up Fedhealth Savings. They will only pay for the portion they use - interest free over 12 months.

Fedhealth Savings available (principal member): R6 310 p/a

The amount the member uses will be divided by 12 and added to their hospital plan contribution.

2 Use flexiFED^{Savvy} as a Savings Plan

The member wants mostly a hospital plan, but likes the idea of having savings in case it's needed. Similar to other schemes, the member starts paying back this day-to-day benefit from the start of the year in equal portions every month.

Fedhealth Savings available (principal member): R5 050 p/a

R1 055 + R421 = R1 476 p/m

life changes, medical aid should adapt too

We know that life can change at the blink of an eye. That's why, on most Fedhealth options, members are allowed to change to a higher option with more appropriate benefits within 30 days of a life-changing event or diagnosis, such as pregnancy or a serious illness.

flexiFED^{Savvy} is no exception, so you can enjoy the peace of mind that should your circumstances change, your medical aid cover can change along with it.
